

TRAVELING THROUGH SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORY

AFRICAN AMERICANS AFTER EMANCIPATION C. 1865-1954

African Americans struggled to gain rights and freedoms after the end of the Civil War. Historic sites in South Carolina commemorate these struggles and include such locations as Penn Center on St. Helena Island, the childhood home of Dr. Benjamin Mays, Rosenwald schools, and a black farm.

Billie Burn Museum/Rob Kennedy Trail
Daufuskie Island

<http://daufuskieislandhistoricalfoundation.org/>

Bonds Conway House Camden

803-425-1123

<http://www.kershawcountyhistoricalsociety.org/bonds.htm>

Boone Hall Plantation
Mount Pleasant

843-884-4371

<http://boonehallplantation.com/>

Brookgreen Gardens
Murrells Inlet

843-235-6000

<http://brookgreen.org/>

Cypress Gardens
Moncks Corner

843-553-0515

<http://www.cypressgardens.info/>

Freewoods Farm
Myrtle Beach

843-650-9139

<http://www.freewoodsfarm.com/>

Great Branch Teacherage Orangeburg

803-533-1828

<http://www.greatbranchrosenwaldteacherage.com>

Mann-Simons Cottage
Columbia

803-252-1770

<http://historiccolumbia.org/site/visit/houses/mannsimons-site/overview/index>

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays Historical Preservation Site Greenwood

864-229-8801

<http://www.mayshousemuseum.org>

Mitchelville Freedom Park
Hilton Head

843-681-7066

<http://www.mitchelvillepreservationproject.com/>

Pine Grove Rosenwald School
Columbia

803-213-1296

<http://www.richlandcountyrecreation.com/rosenwald/index.html>

Southern African American Heritage Center
Cheraw

843-921-9989

<http://www.southernaaheritagecenter.org/>

York W. Bailey Museum at Penn Center
St. Helena Island

843-838-2474

<http://www.penncenter.com/>

Magnolia Plantation Charleston

843-571-1266

<http://www.magnoliaplantation.com/>